

The Free Medical Clinic of Greater Cleveland Donor Privacy Policy

The Free Medical Clinic of Greater Cleveland (The Free Clinic) is in Ohio nonprofit agency committed to providing quality medical care and related services free of charge to individuals who lack appropriate alternatives, and to advocating for policy changes that make health care available to all. All donations received on behalf of The Free Clinic shall be used to further this mission.

“Personal Information” is information that identifies you individually, such as your name, address, telephone number, and email address. Other than as indicated below, any personal information supplied to The Free Clinic by donors shall be used solely to fulfill their donation and shall not be shared for any reason unless appropriate permission is granted by the donor, or unless otherwise required by law. All requests to remain anonymous shall be honored.

The Free Clinic does not sell or share donor lists. Donors who supply The Free Clinic with their personal information may be contacted periodically for solicitation purposes and/or with information regarding upcoming events. However, all donors have the option of being permanently removed from our mailing lists, or to have our contact with them limited as practicable.

To publicly recognize and thank donors for their generosity, The Free Clinic publishes an annual report that includes a list of donors’ names in qualifying annual giving levels. Any donor wishing to remain anonymous in the annual report should notify The Free Clinic at the time of the gift.

We reserve the right to change this Donor Privacy Policy from time to time. When we do, we will note the last update at the bottom of the Policy.
